The Second Sunday of Epiphany

How much?

Our Gospel reading this Sunday retells the first miracle recorded by St John. It is the turning of water into wine at a wedding banquet.

Most scholarship suggests Jesus transformed 120-180 gallons of water...or over 1,000 bottles! And that is only when the wine had run out.

Like the feeding of the 5,000 Jesus provided much more than was needed. We have a generous God. Don't be afraid to tell him what you need today' You might be surprised at the answer you receive.

Revd David Booker

B30 and South Birmingham Foodbank

Many thanks for all your donations throughout 2024. We have seen a record level of demand this year, but donations, both food and financial, have managed to keep up with the need. Those who donate food regularly, please could we ask you to take a break until the beginning of February, as our warehouse is full to bursting just now - the general giving in December has far outstripped the same period in 2022 and 2023. Please keep the Clients, Trustees, Managers and all team members in your prayers.

"Private Library" - we now have a bookstall of quality used Christian books at the back of St Nicolas. Priced at £2 for hardbacks and £1 for softbacks, you can choose to purchase and keep your book, or regard the money as a subscription to a private library and bring the book back after reading, ready for another person to pay-to-read or purchase. Donations can go in any of the donations boxes in church or via the card reader.
